CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

A building project never goes exactly as planned. These words were spoken at many facility meetings in the last year. We planned, and planned, and made timelines, and reviewed changes, and planned some more – and yet, it feels we are still knee-deep in construction! Each day we are closer to completion.

The six classrooms in the new middle school wing are being used by students. The rooms still need some finishing touches: sinks, counter installation and window shades. But we felt it was more important to get the students and teachers in these rooms and finish the details when the students were not in the rooms.

The construction that took place in the former gym has been completed and the music room is fully operational. Closet doors will be installed soon on the storage closets. The new media and technology center is still in progress. The computers are up and working and students have been taking the NWEA tests this past week. We will soon be asking for help moving the remaining bookcases and books out of the former library and into the new one. The former library will become the special education room after it is painted and all the bookcases are moved out.

The new hallway which connects the elementary rooms to the middle school wing will soon be tiled. Because it was newly poured cement the moisture content is tested daily and as soon as it is the right level it will be finished.

The storage room will be finished soon which will allow us to move all the “stuff” out of the trailers that are in the parking area. We know this has been a big inconvenience to have all the construction vehicles plus the storage trailers in our parking lot. Thank you for being patient during the pick-up and drop-off procedures.

The last rooms to be finished will be the gym, locker rooms, Mr. Selecta's office, the kitchen area, and the bathrooms. The facility committee walked through all these spaces yesterday, and even though it looks a mess now, the construction supervisor, tells us that much of it will be completed by mid-October.

Even after everything is completed, it still must pass several inspections. Thank you for your patience during this whole process. We can't wait for it to be finished and to show off the space. We want to make sure everything is perfect before we consider it a construction project that is finished. The next Facility Committee meeting is Tuesday, September 28.

WEBSITE UPDATE

Our new classrooms and gym are not the only things under construction at DaVinci right now. Those of you visiting our website have seen we are in the process of completing a whole scale reconstruction there as well. We will end up with a website that will enable us to communicate more effectively with you, tell our community more about DaVinci Academy, the great things that are happening here, and keep you abreast of upcoming events.

The whole process is taking longer than we had anticipated, but we are making progress toward completion. In the interim, we will keep you updated on our progress. As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at (763)754-6577. We appreciate your patience during this reconstruction process, and are confident you will be happy with the finished product.
